Call to Worship *

PSALM 65:5-13

Leader: By awesome deeds you answer us with righteousness, O God of our salvation, the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas;

People: The one who by his strength established the mountains, being girded with might;

Leader: Who stills the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, the tumult of the peoples,

People: So that those who dwell at the ends of the earth are in awe at your signs. You make the going out of the morning and the evening to shout for joy.

Leader: You visit the earth and water it; you greatly enrich it;

People: The river of God is full of water; you provide their grain, for so you have prepared it.

Leader: You water its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges, softening it with showers, and blessing its growth.

People: You crown the year with your bounty; your wagon tracks overflow with abundance.

Leader: The pastures of the wilderness overflow, the hills gird themselves with joy,

People: The meadows clothe themselves with flocks, the valleys deck themselves with grain, they shout and sing together for joy.

“Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing”

(piano: Marsha, guitar: John)

1 Come, thou Fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace; streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.

Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above; praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it, mount of God's unchanging love.

2 Here I find my Ebenezer; hither by thy help I'm come; and I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home. Jesus sought me when a stranger, wand'ring from the fold of God; he, to rescue me from danger, interposed his precious blood.

3 O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be; let thy grace now, like a fetter, bind my wand'ring heart to thee. Prone to wander— Lord, I feel it—prone to leave the God I love: here's my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

Hymn of Praise *

INSERT

“When We All Get to Heaven” (Eliza E. Hewitt)

(piano: Marsha)

1 Sing the wondrous love of Jesus, Sing His mercy and His grace; In the mansions bright and blessed, He'll prepare for us a place.

Refrain:

When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus, We'll sing and shout the victory.

2 While we walk the pilgrim pathway, Clouds will overspread the sky;
But when trav'ling days are over, Not a shadow, not a sigh. [Refrain]

3 Let us then be true and faithful, Trusting, serving every day;
Just one glimpse of Him in glory Will the toils of life repay. [Refrain]

4 Onward to the prize before us! Soon His beauty we'll behold;
Soon the pearly gates will open; We shall tread the streets of gold.
[Refrain]

Reading of Holy Scripture

Ruth 3

<sup>1</sup>One day Ruth's mother-in-law Naomi said to her, "My daughter, I must find a home for you, where you will be well provided for. <sup>2</sup>Now Boaz, with whose women you have worked, is a relative of ours. Tonight he will be winnowing barley on the threshing floor. <sup>3</sup>Wash, put on perfume, and get dressed in your best clothes. Then go down to the threshing floor, but don't let him know you are there until he has finished eating and drinking. <sup>4</sup>When he lies down, note the place where he is lying. Then go and uncover his feet and lie down. He will tell you what to do." <sup>5</sup>"I will do whatever you say," Ruth answered. <sup>6</sup>So she went down to the threshing floor and did everything her mother-in-law told her to do. <sup>7</sup>When Boaz had finished eating and drinking and was in good spirits, he went over to lie down at the far end of the grain pile. Ruth approached quietly, uncovered his feet and lay down. <sup>8</sup>In the middle of the night something startled the man; he turned—and there was a woman lying at his feet! <sup>9</sup>"Who are you?" he asked. "I am your servant Ruth," she said. "Spread the corner of your garment over me, since you are a guardian-redeemer of our family." <sup>10</sup>"The LORD bless you, my daughter," he replied. "This kindness is greater than that which you showed earlier: You have not run after the younger men, whether rich or poor. <sup>11</sup>And now, my daughter, don't be afraid. I will do for you all you ask. All the people of my town know that you are a woman of noble character. <sup>12</sup>Although it is true that I am a guardian-redeemer of our family, there is another who is more closely related than I. <sup>13</sup>Stay here for the night, and in the morning if he wants to do his duty as your guardian-redeemer, good; let him redeem you. But if he is not willing, as surely as the LORD lives I will do it. Lie here until morning." <sup>14</sup>So she lay at his feet until morning, but got up before anyone could be recognized; and he said, "No one must know that a woman came to the threshing floor." <sup>15</sup>He also said, "Bring me the shawl you are wearing and hold it out." When she did so, he poured into it six measures of barley and placed the bundle on her. Then he went back to town. <sup>16</sup>When Ruth came to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, "How did it go, my daughter?" Then she told her everything Boaz had done for her <sup>17</sup>and added, "He gave me these six measures of barley, saying, 'Don't go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.'" <sup>18</sup>Then Naomi said, "Wait, my daughter, until you find out what happens. For the man will not rest until the matter is settled today."
