PSALM 122

Leader: I was glad when they said to me, “Let us go to the house of the LORD!”

People: Our feet have been standing within your gates, O Jerusalem!

Leader: Jerusalem—built as a city that is bound firmly together, to which the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, as was decreed for Israel, to give thanks to the name of the LORD.

People: There thrones for judgment were set, the thrones of the house of David.

Leader: Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! “May they be secure who love you!

People: Peace be within your walls and security within your towers!”

“Speak , O Lord” (Getty)

1 Speak, O Lord, as we come to You to receive the food of Your Holy Word. Take Your Truth, plant it deep in us: shape and fashion us in Your likeness. That the light of Christ might be seen today in our acts of love and our deeds of faith. Speak, O Lord and fulfill in us all Your purposes for your glory.

2 Teach us Lord, full obedience, Holy reverence, true humility. Test our thoughts and our attitudes; in the radiance of Your purity. Cause our faith to rise, cause our eyes to see Your majestic love and authority. Words of pow’r that can never fail. Let their truth prevail over unbelief.

3 Speak, O Lord, and renew our minds; Help us grasp the heights of Your plans for us. Truths unchanged from the dawn of time, that will echo down through eternity. And by grace we’ll stand on Your promises; And by faith we’ll walk as You walk with us. Speak, O Lord, ‘til Your church is built and the earth is filled with Your glory.

Responsive Reading

Leader: As a deer pants for flowing streams, so pants my soul for you, O God.

People: My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God?

Leader: My tears have been my food day and night, while they say to me all the day long, “Where is your God?”

People: These things I remember, as I pour out my soul: how I would go with the throng and lead them in procession to the house of God with glad shouts and songs of praise, a multitude keeping festival.

Leader: Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation and my God.

People: My soul is cast down within me; therefore I remember you from the land of Jordan and of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

Leader: Deep calls to deep at the roar of your waterfalls; all your breakers and your waves have gone over me.

People: By day the LORD commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

Leader: I say to God, my rock: "Why have you forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

People: As with a deadly wound in my bones, my adversaries taunt me, while they say to me all the day long, "Where is your God?"

Leader: Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation and my God.

"Shall We Gather at the River? with "Deep River" arr. Tom Fettke

Dismiss Children For Children's Church (3 & 4 year olds)

Reading of Holy Scripture (ESV)

ROMANS 6:1-14 (ESV)

What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? ² By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? ³ Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴ We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.
⁵ For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. ⁶ We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. ⁷ For one who has died has been set free from sin. ⁸ Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. ⁹ We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. ¹⁰ For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God.

¹¹ So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ J Jesus.

¹² Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions. ¹³ Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. ¹⁴ For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

"The New Walk"

Hymn of Response*

N^o679

"Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus" (William Kirkpatrick)

1 'Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus, just to take him at his word; just to rest upon his promise; just to know, "Thus saith the Lord."

Refrain:

Jesus, Jesus, how I trust him! How I've proved him o'er and o'er!
Jesus, Jesus, precious Jesus! O for grace to trust him more!

2 O how sweet to trust in Jesus, just to trust his cleansing blood;
just in simple faith to plunge me 'neath the healing, cleansing flood! {Refrain}

3 Yes, 'tis sweet to trust in Jesus, just from sin and self to cease;
just from Jesus simply taking life and rest, and joy and peace.
{Refrain}

4 I'm so glad I learned to trust thee, precious Jesus, Savior, Friend; and I know that thou art with me, wilt be with me to the end.
{Refrain}

Offertory Prayer

Gloria Patri *

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.

William J. Kirkpatrick (1838-1921) was born in Pennsylvania and his father was his first music teacher. He was naturally gifted as a musician and received the best musical training available at that time. He moved to Philadelphia as a teen and was editing his first songbook by age 21. At the onset of the Civil War he enlisted as a fife-major and served a short time in the 91st Regiment of the Pennsylvania Volunteers. He took a job in a furniture store to support his young wife devoting his spare time to music. William's compositions were inspired by his love of the Lord, blessed by his musical talent and often expressed personal sorrow. William James Kirkpatrick is remembered as one of the finest Christian composers of the late 1800s and early 1900's. His hymn tunes include "Blessed Be the Name", "Lord, I'm Coming Home," and "Redeemed, How I Love to Proclaim It."

Loved ones battling cancer:

- Jim Smith: pancreatic cancer; doing well. Jim' next scan is December 14; please pray for another stable scan.
- Andrew Gerrard (Jo Stanford's nephew): desmoplastic small round cell tumor(s); Two praises! His fluid retention has decreased by 50%! His latest scan showed no new lesions, the bulk of the disease covering his bowels is slightly less, and overall everything is stable! However this regimen of chemo has caused extreme fatigue, nausea, and a complete loss of appetite. He has also received multiple blood and platelet transfusions after each round of treatment. He started the same chemo regimen on Nov. 4th, with a slight decrease in dosage to see if that helps make it more tolerable. Please pray that this round will be much different in that regard. And that it will continue to produce positive results. Also please pray for success of fund raising and for federal funding for a research lab at MDA that is very close to starting a clinical trial specifically for DSRTC (desmoplastic small round cell tumor). The family is so thankful for all your prayers.
